

The Word Today Encouragement

Romans 8:38

Pastor Doug Schroeder

This is Pastor Doug Schroeder of The Word Today and let's find encouragement in Romans chapter 8, verse 38 and following. "For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present life nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth or anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

We get afraid of things that can cause division and separate us from the things we love. We are afraid of accidents or people intruding in our lives to cause division and hardship. We don't want to let go of the things we love and so one of the great fears that we have is that illness or something else might tear us away from our family. One of the great comforts of God's word to us is that there is nothing in this world including diseases, including accidents that can ultimately separate the people of God from the Lord.

This is so wonderful that through Jesus Christ we have been promised an eternal future with God and together there is no disease, there is no government, there is no activity of man that can prevent that. So, take encouragement and know that the Lord God has called you to himself in Jesus Christ. Your future is secure, nothing can happen, nothing can devastate and change that future God has for you! No matter what is happening currently, God has his intent to redeem you and save you for eternity through our Lord Jesus Christ.
